

Cumulative excess deaths per 100,000 people in selected countries in 2020 and 2021

Excess deaths is defined as the gap between the total number of deaths that occur for any reason and the amount that would be expected under normal circumstances

Data: The Economist, github.com/TheEconomist/covid-19-the-economist-global-excess-deaths-model

Viz: @rrmaximiliano